School Board Approves Library Plan.

Stockholders of Citizens Bank Meet.

At a meeting of the school board last night the plan for the new library, to be installed in the Quincy school, were approved, providing that the expense is not too great.

The school board was willing for one of the rooms in the Quincy school to be used and if necessary it is understood the school board will furnish lights.

Some talk was made in regard to making a separate door to enter the room which will be used for library purposes, so that patrons of the library will not have to enter the school proper.

A partial report obtained from the State industrial school for the year 1917 shows that during the entire year one hundred and fifty-four boys were committed to the institution. The largest majority of the commitments was for stealing.

The number of paroles for the past year amount to one hundred and fifty-nine.

Not the Champion.

Bold Bad Man.

A bold bad man in broad daylight with the aid of three—just think of it—three axes, broke into a store on North Kansas avenue Monday afternoon and no one interfered. Perhaps, because, and he was a back door man.

WANT SALOONS BACK.

Gong Dry Proves Disastrous to Prosperous Town in Ohio.

Carrollton, O., Jan. 5.—Sherrods-ville, ten miles southeast of here, the population of which has dwindled from 2,000 to less than 400 since the town became dry a few years ago, is demanding the voting in of saloons so that the city may get revenue enough to keep municipal communication intact. Under the Ohio law, the city lost its saloons when the county went dry.

Since the home rule amendment carried in the last election, practically all of the citizens are demanding an election under the local law so that saloons may be voted in.
